

Sample ballot papers

These samples show the order in which each column of candidates will appear on the ballot papers.

Remember, under Robson rotation candidates' names can appear in different positions within each column, so your ballot paper may not look exactly like the one reproduced here.

Please read the instructions on the ballot paper carefully. Write numbers in the squares – no ticks or crosses – and don't repeat any number.

Need more information?

If you have any questions about the election on 20 October, call our Elections ACT Information Line on 6205 0033 or email us at elections@act.gov.au

You can also visit the Elections ACT website at: www.elections.act.gov.au

These are "party" or "ballot group" columns, listing candidates nominated by registered political parties or ballot groups, with two or more candidates.

These are "non-party group" columns, listing candidates who have asked to be grouped together.

This tells you the minimum number of candidates you should vote for.
